

Understanding Your Employer's Economic Condition

October 11th, 2017 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. Austin, TX

Today whenever local associations approach a local government to have a discussion about finance issues, their immediate response is “we don’t have any money.” This may or may not be true. This training will focus on how to evaluate and understand your local government’s true economic condition. Attendees will gain a better understanding of their employer’s financial condition and future spending plans and how to use that information when discussing compensation and staffing issues.

Topics Include:

- Where to get the info needed to assess financial condition
- Use of metrics and/or ratios in an analytical approach and methodology
